

Loyola Blakefield
President
Towson, MD

Loyola Blakefield, a Catholic, college preparatory school, established by the Jesuits and imbued with the spirit of Ignatius Loyola, forms men to serve with and for others. The Loyola student is preparing to graduate as a man of integrity, who, because he strives “to find God in all things,” is open to growth, intellectually ambitious, religious, loving, and committed to diversity and doing justice.

Loyola Blakefield seeks a President to serve starting July 1, 2024 or earlier.

The rich history and tradition of Loyola Blakefield provide the foundation for a school focused on excellence in all of its programs and the development of men of integrity. With a magnificent campus and an academic program that looks to the future, the school is a leader in Jesuit education and a home for an exceptional student body.
