Crane Country Day School
Director of Development
Santa Barbara, CA

drg talent consulting experts

CRANE COUNTRY DAY SCHOOL

Crane Country Day School seeks a new Director of Development to start July 1, 2024. Their mission reads: Crane Country Day School is dedicated to providing an experiential education characterized by a thoughtful balance of academic challenge and creative expression to students from kindergarten through eighth grade. As a community, Crane builds character and confidence, while celebrating the joy in learning.

The Crane School community consists of dedicated Staffulty (their internal word to describe the team effort between teachers and administrative staff), curious and kind students, and engaged supportive parents! Their daily assembly is just one of the tools to foster their strong sense of community.

The campus is truly idyllic, 12 acres with beautiful educational buildings that are the byproduct of seven Capital Campaigns in the last two decades under the longstanding leadership of Head of School Joel Weiss. The school can boast solid admissions, zero debt, and a considerable endowment. For a small school (252 students in kindergarten through eighth grade) the team has had sustained phenomenal fundraising success in both their annual fund and larger capital campaigns. The next Director of Development will serve a key role in partnering with Joel to lead Crane's philanthropic activities and foster relational and financial support from the entire community.

To show interest in the position and to receive the Opportunity Statement once it becomes available, please click the 'Apply' button on this page and submit your information.

Senior Talent Consultant: Jennifer Fleischer
Start Date: July 1, 2024
Status: Accepting Applications

Crane Country Day School is an equal opportunity employer inviting accomplished development professionals from diverse backgrounds to consider joining the community.

To apply for this position, please click HERE.

Jennifer Fleischer
Senior Talent Consultant
Jfleischer@drgtalent.com